ELEGANT CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.

P. J. STEER, Morchant Tailor, after very heartily thanking his customers, citizens, and sojourners in the District and the surrounding country for their liberal and encouraging patronage for the last twelve years, respectfully solicits a continuance of their favors at his new establishment, on Eighth street, three doors from the Avenue, where, having the advantage of a low rent, excellent accommodations, and first-rate workmen, together with a stock of Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, so various and well-assorted that gentlemen cannot fail to be pleased, he guaranties the amplest satisfaction to all whom he may have the pleasure to serve.

The experiment he has been trying for the last nine months of an establishment a little off the Avenue, where rents are much lower and accommodations much better, and where, consequently, prices can be made correspondingly low, has thus far proved eminently successful; and gentlemen are advised to take these advantages into consideration mar 3—3taw4w ELEGANT CLOTHING MADE TO ORDER.

FARM NEAR WASHINGTON FOR SALE. BARNES', Burkitt's and Wesley's Notes; THE subscriber offers for sale his Farm, situated about five miles from Washington, D.C., in Prince George's county, Md. It contains 175½ acres, more than 30 of which is a fine alluvial meadow, producing a ton and a half of hay to the acre, but which under improved cultivation would produce at least two tons. Hay sells in the Washington market at from $14 to $20 per ton. About four acres of the place is a marsh, covered with several feet in thickness of black earth, the result of decayed vegetation, which, properly composted, is a source from which the upland may be enriched at a reasonable cost. About 60 acres of the farm is woodland—growth principally 60 acres of the farm is woodland—growth principally oak and chestnut. The land, except the meadow, is undulating, and affords many beautiful sites for buildundulating, and affords many beautiful sites for building. There are many springs of excellent water on the place, and it is noted for its healthfulness. The soil of the greater part of the upland is a sandy loam, underlaid by clay—in some places, clay predominating. About 75 acres could be divided into small gardening farms, giving nearly an equal quantity of wood and arable land to each. There is an orchard of 150 peach trees and 60 apple trees on the place, all bearing; also, about two hundred apple trees, ready for grafting. It is well fenced. The buildings are—a log house of four rooms, with a frame addition of three rooms, a meat-house of sun-dried brick, a log kitchen separate from the dwelling, a corn-house, stable, car-

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear sir: While I am, in general, opposed to patent medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family: and in dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dizances, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

Messrt Mortimer & Morebray—Gentlemin: It is with real pleasure that I am able to attest to the general heating and curative powers of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. Some time during last November I was taken with a very bad and reflous cough. I was advised to take God Liver Oil, and did so, but, getting no better, I was induced to try your Tincture. I got one bottle, and, before I had used it, all my cough left me. Permit me also to state, that for the last fifteen years I have suffered very much from Acute Rheumatism and Vertigo, confining me, at times, to my bed. I am fully convinced that I owe my present good health to the use of the Tincture, and a kind Providence.

Nonfolk, March 11. The ship Courier, which put back to Hampton Roads yesterday, was from City Point, with a cargo of flour, bound to Rio de Janeiro. She will remain in the Roads for orders, and, if it is found necessary to discharge her cargo, will probably go to Baltimore or New York. The captain is in hopes of finding the leak in her upper works, and that he will be able to stop it without discharging more than a small part of the cargo. The schooner Paclatus, a wrecker, arrived from the wreck of the Philena, ashore at Cape Henry, with a portion of her-cargo and materials. The captain thinks they will be able to save the greater part of her cargo, if no storm arises to head up the ship. She has not changed her position, but gradually sinks.

Extension of the Pennsylvania Rail-road-Great Celebration. PITTSBURG, March 11.

The Ohio and Pennsylvania railroad, which has been completed to Massilon, Ohio, 107 miles from this city, was formally opened to-day. About one thousand of our citizens have gone out to participate in the festivities. The mayor, city council, and many of our most influential men, are among those who join in the celebration. The cars, with the party, left our depot at 8 o'clock this morning. They expect to reach Canton, Ohio, at 2 p. m., where the guests will dine and then proceed to Massilon, which point they expect to reach at 4½ p. m .. The evening will be devoted to festivities in honor of the event, and the visiters will return to Pittsburg to-morrow. The occasion seems to be one of great interest. The weather here is pleasant; business is unusually active. The boats from below and cars from Cleveland came in crowded with travellers.

The river has ninc feet of water in the channel.
